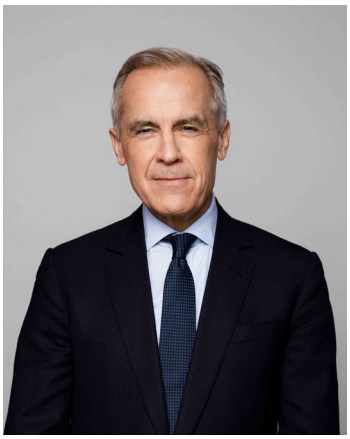
PRIME MINISTER · PREMIER MINISTRE



I would like to convey my warmest greetings to everyone attending the 2026 SOCAN Awards.

You have come together this evening to honour exceptional songwriters, composers and music publishers who are shaping Canadian music at home and around the world. I join you in congratulating this year's award recipients. Their tremendous accomplishments made them most deserving of this special recognition.

I would also like to thank SOCAN for hosting this event. You can take pride in your commitment to celebrating and supporting Canadian musicians and industry professionals.

I wish you a memorable experience and continued success.

The Right Honourable Mark Carney, P.C., O.C., M.P.
Prime Minister of Canada
